Description

This property as a hunting tract and/ or a homesite. It is part pine regrowth about 14 years old which provides thick cover for whitetail deer. The other part is hardwood timber which provides excellent squirell hunting. This property has a pond and creek that runs throught one corner. A fixer upper camp is already onsite. Electricity is run back to homesite already and rural water is available. Great spot for a father and son to get away. Would make a great house site as well.
