

100 acres in Odum, GA

Description: 100 acre nestled in the middle of timberland and hunting country! The property is located on Brentwood Road in Odum, GA. The pine timber plantation has just been cut and is ready for this planting season. A power line runs through the property and would make an excellent location for food plots or a dove field. The excellent deer hunting in this area makes this a super location for the outdoorsmen. The quiet setting down a country dirt road is a major plus. Do you like duck hunting? Well, a duck pond is located on the east side of the property. It would also make a nice fishing pond with a little work. This property will go fast! Call Ryker @ 912-294-0335.
