SIZE & DESCRIPTION

1,275± Deeded Acres
40± BLM Lease Acres
1,315± Total Contiguous Acres

The ranch is fenced with four and five strands of barbed wire. It is cross-fenced into three pastures. Much of the fence on the ranch is less than three years old. The current owner fenced out the majority of the creek (leaving only a water gap for the cattle) and the meadow ground.

The terrain of the ranch consists of a cottonwood and willow lined river bottom, irrigated meadows that transition into rolling grass hills, pine tree covered hillsides and then a nice flat with incredible views of the Laramie Range. Mature cottonwood, pine and cedar trees provide excellent habitat for the wildlife and protection for the livestock. The elevation on the property varies between 4,900 and 5,100 feet above sea level. One of the more prominent features of the ranch is a waterfall which fills a large pool and then spills into the North Laramie River. Historical maps and locals refer to the feature as the Devil's Washtub.

There are approximately 22± acres of flood-irrigated pasture with water coming from the North Laramie River. The current owner reconstructed the diversion in 2022.

The Hidden Gem Ranch is located in Area 7 for elk hunting, Area 64 for deer hunting and 103 for antelope hunting.

LEASE INFORMATION

- Livestock water is from the creeks, springs, one reservoir and one well

Upon request, Clark & Associates Land Brokers, LLC will provide any prospective buyer a Wyoming State Engineer's ground and surface water rights search that was completed on the Hidden Gem Ranch. In the event of a sale, all water rights permitted and adjudicated to the property shall be transferred to the buyer.

CARRYING CAPACITY / RANCH OPERATIONS

The Hidden Gem Ranch was historically part of a much larger ranch. The current owner has summered approximately 55 head of yearlings on the southern portion of the ranch and left the feed on river bottom and the northern portion for the wildlife. The grass is high quality with a variety of hard grass species, rich in protein content. It is common for weight gains of 1.8 to 2 pounds per day on yearling cattle. The ranch is cross fenced for flexible management and efficient grazing rotation. Most fences are four strands of barbed wire with steel posts and are in good condition.

“Carrying capacity can vary due to weather conditions and management practices. Interested parties should conduct their own analysis.”

RECREATION & WILDLIFE

The North Laramie River has long been well known as a great trout fishery. The owners of the Hidden Gem Ranch have done extensive work on the portion traversing their boundaries. In the spring of 2023, the Hidden Gem waters were stocked with catchable rainbow trout. There is also a large reservoir that fills on its own most years and can also be filled using a water right from the North Laramie. The current owner has not filled the reservoir using the pipeline from the river.

This ranch is private and scenic with multiple species of wildlife. Elk, mule deer, whitetail deer and antelope can be found on the ranch. The wildlife habitat draws and holds elk and deer with the great cover provided by the rock outcroppings and pine hills which give way to lower productive creek bottoms and riparian areas.

Other wildlife found on the Hidden Gem include turkey, coyotes, mountain lion, bobcat, and upland game birds.

The Grayrocks Wildlife Habitat Management Area is seven miles south of Guernsey, Wyoming and nine miles northeast of Wheatland along the Laramie River. There is a dam and reservoir along the Laramie River that supplies cooling water for the Laramie River Power Plant. Through a cooperative agreement between the Wyoming Game & Fish Commission and the Missouri Basin Power Project, these lands are being managed for optimum public recreational activities and to maintain or improve present wildlife habitat.

Glendo State Park is one of southern Wyoming's most popular boating parks, offering visitors waterskiing, fishing, sailing, and other water-based activities. Guernsey State Park has one of Wyoming's most attractive reservoirs. Bluffs located on the east side of the park block the wind from the park area and leave the waters warm and inviting for swimmers and water skiers. The park also offers boating, camping, fishing, hiking, bird watching and picnicking.

The Oregon Trail Ruts State Historic Site, just north of Wheatland, is one of the most visible remnants of the Oregon Trail, with tracks cut into solid rock. At the Register Cliff State Historic Site, one can see where emigrants who camped along the banks of the North Platte River etched their names into the soft sandstone cliff.

Hunting, hiking, camping, and four-wheeling trips can be found in the Laramie Mountains to the west. Laramie Peak, west of Wheatland, is the highest point in the Laramie Mountains with an elevation of 10,272 feet. The peak offers a steep 4.8-mile trail to the top that is open to ATVs, horses, and hikers.

STATE OF WYOMING

Wyoming is a state that offers an incredible diversity of activities, geography, climate, and history. Just a territory in 1869, Wyoming became the 44th state in 1890. The state's population is 563,626, and provides a variety of opportunities and advantages for persons wishing to establish residency.

Wyoming's energy costs are the second lowest in the nation, and the cost of living index is below the national average. Wyoming ranks among the top ten in the entire United States for educational performance. There is no state income tax, and Wyoming offers an extremely favorable tax climate:

- No personal income tax
- No corporate income tax
- No gross receipts tax
- No inventory tax
- Low retail sales tax
- Low property tax
- Favorable inheritance tax
- Favorable unemployment tax

According to Michael B. Sauter, Alexander E. M. Hess, Samuel Weigley, and Ashley C. Allen of 24/7 Wall Street, Wyoming is a model of good management and a prospering population. The state is particularly efficient at managing its debt, owing the equivalent of just 20.4% of annual revenue in fiscal 2010. Wyoming also has a tax structure that, according to the Tax Foundation, is the nation's most-favorable for businesses - it does not have any corporate income taxes. The state has experienced an energy boom in recent years. The mining industry, which includes oil and gas extracting, accounted for 29.4% of the state's GDP; more than in any other state. As of last year, Wyoming's poverty, home foreclosure, and unemployment rates were all among the lowest in the nation.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Clark & Associates Land Brokers, LLC (Name of Brokerage Company)

REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE DISCLOSURE

When you select a Real Estate Broker Firm, Broker or sales person (all referred to as "Broker") to assist you in a real estate transaction, the Broker may do so in one of several capacities. In accordance with Wyoming's Brokerage Relationships Act, this notice discloses the types of working relationships that are available to you.

Seller's Agent. (Requires written agreement with Seller)

If a Seller signs a written listing agreement with a Broker and engages the Broker as a Seller's agent, the Broker represents the Seller. On properties listed with other brokerage companies, the Broker may work as an agent for the Seller if the Seller agrees to have the Broker work as a subagent. As an agent or subagent for the Seller, the Broker represents the Seller and owes the Seller a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-303(a). The Seller may be vicariously liable for the acts of the Seller's Agent or Seller's subagent that are approved, directed or ratified by the Seller.

Customer. (No written agreement with Buyer)

A customer is a party to a real estate transaction who has established no intermediary or agency relationship with any Broker in that transaction. A Broker may work as an agent for the Seller treating the Buyer as a customer or as an agent for the Buyer treating the Seller as a customer. Also when a Buyer or Seller is represented by another Broker, a Broker may work with the other Buyer or Seller as a customer, having no written agreement, agency or intermediary relationship with either party. A Broker working with a customer shall owe no duty of confidentiality to a customer. Any information shared with Broker may be shared with the other party to the transaction at customer's risk. The customer should not tell the Broker any information which the customer does not want shared with the other party to the transaction. The customer should not tell the Broker any information which the customer does not want shared with the other party to the transaction. The Broker must treat the customer honestly and with fairness disclosing all material matters actually known by the Broker. The Broker owes the customer the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries which are marked with asterisks. W.S. § 33-28-310(a).

Buyer's Agent. (Requires written agreement with Buyer)

If a Buyer signs a written Buyer Agency Agreement with a Broker, the Broker will act as an agent for the Buyer. If so, the Broker represents the Buyer and owes the Buyer a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. The Buyer may be vicariously liable for the acts of the Buyer's Agent that are approved, directed or ratified by the Buyer. As a Buyer's Agent, Wyoming law requires the Broker to disclose to potential Sellers all adverse material facts, which may include material facts regarding the Buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-304(c). As a Buyer's Agent, the Broker has duties to disclose to the Buyer certain information; therefore, the Seller should not tell the Broker any information which the Seller does not want shared with the Buyer.

Intermediary. (Requires written agreement with Seller and/or Buyer)

The Intermediary relationship is a non-agency relationship which may be established between a Broker and a Seller and/or a Broker and a Buyer. A Seller may choose to engage a Broker as an Intermediary when listing a property. A Buyer may also choose to engage a Broker as an Intermediary. An Intermediary shall not act as an agent or advocate for any party and shall be limited to providing those services set forth below. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-305.

As an Intermediary (Non-Agent), Broker will not represent you or act as your agent. The parties to a transaction are not legally responsible for the actions of an Intermediary and an Intermediary does not owe the parties the duties of an agent, including the fiduciary duties of loyalty and fidelity. Broker will have the following obligations to you:

- perform the terms of any written agreement made by the Intermediary with any party or parties to the transaction;
- exercise reasonable skill and care;*

- advise the parties to obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the Intermediary knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of the Intermediary;*
- present all offers and counteroffers in a timely manner;*
- account promptly for all money and property the Broker received;*
- keep you fully informed regarding the transaction;*
- obtain the written consent of the parties before assisting the Buyer and Seller in the same real estate transaction as an Intermediary to both parties to the transaction;
- assist in complying with the terms and conditions of any contract and with the closing of the transaction;*
- disclose to the parties any interests the Intermediary may have which are adverse to the interest of either party;
- disclose to prospective Buyers, known adverse material facts about the property;*
- disclose to prospective Sellers, any known adverse material facts, including adverse material facts pertaining to the Buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction;*
- disclose to the parties that an Intermediary owes no fiduciary duty either to Buyer or Seller, is not allowed to negotiate on behalf of the Buyer or Seller, and may be prohibited from disclosing information about the other party, which if known, could materially affect negotiations in the real estate transaction.

As Intermediary, the Broker will disclose all information to each party, but will not disclose the following information without your informed consent:

- the motivating factors for buying or selling the property;
- that you will agree to financing terms other than those offered, or
- any material information about you, unless disclosure is required by law or if lack of disclosure would constitute dishonest dealing or fraud.

Change From Agent to Intermediary – In – House Transaction

If a Buyer who has signed a Buyer Agency Agreement with the Broker wants to look at or submit an offer on property Broker has listed as an agent for the Seller, the Seller and the Buyer may consent in writing to allow Broker to change to an Intermediary (non-agency) relationship with both the Buyer and the Seller. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-307.

An established relationship cannot be modified without the written consent of the Buyer or the Seller. The Buyer or Seller may, but are not required to, negotiate different commission fees as a condition to consenting to a change in relationship.

Designated Agent. (requires written designation by the brokerage firm and acknowledgement by the Buyer or Seller)

A designated agent means a licensee who is designated by a responsible broker to serve as an agent or intermediary for a Seller or Buyer in a real estate transaction. Wyo. Stat. § 33-28-301 (a)(x).

In order to facilitate a real estate transaction a Brokerage Firm may designate a licensee as your agent or intermediary. The Designated Agent will have the same duties to the Buyer and Seller as a Buyer's or Sell's Agent or Intermediary. The Broker or an appointed "transaction manager" will supervise the transaction and will not disclose to either party confidential information about the Buyer or Seller. The designation of agency may occur at the time the Buyer or Seller enters into an agency agreement with the Brokerage Firm or the designation of agency may occur later if an "in house" real estate transaction occurs. At that time, the Broker or "transaction manager" will immediately disclose to the Buyer and Seller that designated agency will occur.

Duties Owed by An Agent But Not Owed By An Intermediary.

WHEN ACTING AS THE AGENT FOR ONE PARTY (EITHER BUYER OR SELLER), BROKER HAS FIDUCIARY DUTIES OF UTMOST GOOD FAITH, LOYALTY, AND FIELITY TO THAT ONE PARTY. A BROKER ENGAGED AS AN INTERMEDIARY DOES NOT REPRESENT THE BUYER OR THE SELLER AND WILL NOT OWE EITHER PARTY THOSE FIDUCIARY DUTIES. HOWEVER, THE INTERMEDIARY MUST EXERCISE REASONABLE SKILL AND CARE AND MUST COMPLY WITH WYOMING LAW. AN INTERMEDIARY IS NOT AN AGENT OF ADVOCATE FOR EITHER PARTY. SELLER AND BUYER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ACTS OF AN INTERMEDIARY, SO LONG AS THE INTERMEDIARY COMPLIES WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF WYOMING'S BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS ACT. WYO. STAT. § 33-28-306(a)(iii).

THIS WRITTEN DISCLOSURE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT, BY ITSELF, SHALL NOT CONSTITUTE A CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT WITH THE BROKER OR HIS/HER FIRM. UNTIL THE BUYER OR SELLER EXECUTES THIS DISCLOSURE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, NO REPRESENTATION AGREEMENT SHALL BE EXECUTED OR VALID. WYO. STAT. § 33-28-306(b).

NO MATTER WHICH RELATIONSHIP IS ESTABLISHED, A REAL ESTATE BROKER IS NOT ALLOWED TO GIVE LEGAL ADVICE. IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ABOUT THIS NOTICE OR ANY DOCUMENT IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION, CONSULT LEGAL COUNSEL AND OTHER COUNSEL BEFORE SIGNING.

The amount or rate of a real estate commission for any brokerage relationships is not fixed by law. It is set by each Broker individually and may be negotiable between the Buyer or Seller and the Broker.
